Remember.

Saturday, October 7th is the last day for the payment of taxes...

The "dove of peace" acted beautifully, at Portsmouth, N. H., but she is raving "mad" in Tokyo.

The big Russian envoy who won such a notable diplomatic victory with the peace protocol, seems to be as "wise" as he is "white."

An Indiana farmer while attending a county fair lost his wife and pocketbook, and offers a liberal reward for the recovery of the latter.

The Lansing, Michigan, Journal complains about the artistic design of those new $20 bills. We never find fault with that feature of them when they stray around these parts.

We would look forward with unmixed pleasure to Col. W. J. Bryan's tour around the world, if it were not for the "fear" that Geo. Fred Williams, of Massachusetts, would bob up as a self-appointed guardian of the "plane peepul" during his chief's absence.

NORWAY seems to have found a sober, industrious and promising man to accept her "crown" for $175,000 per year. She could have found numbers in Minnesota, the Dakotas and Wisconsin, to take the job and do it well too, on a measly little salary like what we pay our president.

A Fake Reform.

In a recent issue of the Derrick appeared the following editorial utterances, which will strike the average thinker as quite to the point, unconvincing as it does some of the fake reforms of which we hear so much of late from the politicians:

Mayor Weaver, of Philadelphia, is to be investigated and his wholesale removals of city officials and his sweeping charges of graft and corruption will be probed to the bottom. There are two sides to every story and a suspension of popular judgment is in order until the court of inquiry appointed by the council completes its work.

Forty million bottles of August Flower sold in the United States alone since its introduction! And the demand for it is still going strong. Isn't that a fine showing of success? Don't it prove that August Flower has had unflinching success in the cure of indigestion and dyspepsia—the two greatest enemies of health and happiness? Does it not afford the best evidence that August Flower is a sure specific for all stomach and intestinal disorders—that it has proved itself the best of all liver regulators? August Flower has a matchless record of over thirty-five years in curing the ailing millions of these distressing complaints—a success that is becoming wider in its scope every day, at home and abroad, as the fame of August Flower spreads. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale by Dunn & Fulton.

Cured of Lame Back After 15 Years of Suffering. "I had been troubled with lame back for fifteen years and I found a complete recovery in the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says John G. Bisher, Gilliam, Ind. "It not only afforded the best relief for my sprains and bruises. It is for sale by Dunn & Fulton."

San-Cura Ointment has no equal for Eczema. One year ago my face and neck were one mass of raw sores; the doctor said I had Eczema and Erysipelas. I had not slept for weeks, with itching burnings. It was terrible! The first night I used San-Cura Ointment, I slept all night for the first time in weeks, and in a short time was so completely cured. CHAS. FAY, Townville, Pa. Druggists, 25c and 50c.

shows the desperate expedients to which Mr. Weaver resorted in order to sustain his position and secure the quasi support of outside politicians in his onslaught upon the Republican organization of this state. And that Mr. Root expressed himself as he did was in exceeding bad taste. His presumption in meddling in Pennsylvania politics was merely the act of a hired attorney and not the deliberate proceeding of an experienced and astute politician. He fell very easily into the trap laid for him by a foreign-born mayor, scarce ten years a citizen of this country.

But Mayor Weaver's display of pyrotechnics is evidently reaching its close and he is now up against another sort of proposition. The men whom he has beset with are about to give him a taste of his own medicine, and he will be called upon to make good his charges and explain his acts. While certain city officials may have been guilty of perverting the public funds, they might have been exposed and convicted without attempting to prove that the political machinery of Philadelphia which placed Mayor Weaver in his present position, was honeycombed with fraud and corruption. The fact that 60,000 names on the registry list could not be found at their last year's places of residence proves nothing. In a city the size of Philadelphia, there are more than 60,000 changes in the directory every year. Mayor Weaver has attempted too much. His reform movement is vastly overdone, and it is time to call a halt and let the people know where "he is at." The Councils have done an excellent thing in demanding this investigation, and it is now up to the Mayor to show his hand.

A MAN OF THE PEOPLE

LABORING INTERESTS OF THE STATE Rally Around Plummer.

RECALL HIS PLUCK AS A BOY

Career of the Republican Nominee For State Treasurer Appeals to the Masses.

[Special Correspondence.] Harrisburg, Sept. 12.

It has been a source of gratification to the friends of J. Lee Plummer, the Republican nominee for state treasurer, to find that on every hand workmen of Pennsylvania are expressing keen interest in his candidacy. Mr. Plummer is recognized as a man who has worked his way up from very humble circumstances and who is entitled to the consideration and support of every Pennsylvanian who appreciates worth and merit in a fellow citizen.

What may be termed the "labor vote" is practically solid for Mr. Plummer.

The name of "Plummer" was heard on many lips in the great popular demonstration of Labor Day. Out in Pittsburg, where the labor parade was the largest ever given in that section of the state, many of the leaders in the labor movement are among Mr. Plummer's staunchest supporters.

A Labor Editor's Tribute.

In a special edition of his paper published for Labor Day the editor of the Labor World had this to say about Mr. Plummer:

"In another part of this issue of the Labor World we publish a brief sketch of the career of J. Lee Plummer, Republican candidate for state treasurer of Pennsylvania. The facts of this sketch prove Mr. Plummer to be in truth a remarkable man, both as to mental ability and moral fortitude. His great and creditable success in life shows that he is not such stuff as dreams are made of. He is typical of those immortal Americans who have sprung from the lowly cottage or cabin and rocky paths of ill-requited toil to become great public blessings."

"From a wage worker's viewpoint there is much to be proud of in the early struggles of J. Lee Plummer. He was compelled when at tender years to 'get out and hustle' to support the family. His father had met with a serious accident when on public duty. Young Plummer worked with a will and with hope. He soon displayed marked ability and he became a 'prominent man' before he had attained his majority."

True to the Masses.

"It is natural that such men of talent as Mr. Plummer should reach important public offices of trust. He has been no exception, and to his credit let it be recorded that he has been true to the interests of the masses in the performance of his duty. As chairman of the committee on appropriations, his work exists as a monument to his fidelity to the best interests of the people. His sympathies and efforts were for the poor, the very poor. Doubtless his struggles in early life prompted him unwaveringly in this direction. His policy as chairman of the appropriations committee regarding free beds in hospitals and the treatment of the insane poor cannot but win for him the help of the workers for wages. His noble effort to have the state care for consumptives unable to help themselves is another proof of his strong desire to aid and uplift struggling humanity."

"Such men as Mr. Plummer, embodying all the sterling qualities characteristic of the truest Americans afford the very best examples to the sons of the wage workers. Depend upon it, they prove that poverty is not a barrier to success when determination and honesty of purpose are employed. Thus it is that these examples should be encouraged by those who benefit most by them, that is, the workmen themselves."

"Let the honorable and progressive course of the quondam newsboy be continued. His past gives assurance for the future. He comes from the ranks and is one of the people."

Andrews is Satisfied.

Republican State Chairman Andrews is entirely satisfied with his reports from the counties, says the Pittsburg Gazette. They indicate the usual "off-year" plurality for J. Lee Plummer, or more. There is no good reason why this should not be so. Mr. Plummer is a man of high character, who has the hearty support of all Republicans in Blair county, where he resides. He is well qualified for the position to which he aspires. His opponent, Mayor Berry of Chester, is a self-seeking politician, a place hunter, a chronic candidate for office who is willing to be nominee of any party that has a chance of success—Prohibitionist, Free Silverite, by turns—Mr. Berry is anything for an office and not much in one.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler, of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some soured meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. It was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale by Dunn & Fulton.

Fish Pies in England. In medieval England fish pies were a very favorite dish at Christmas time, and lamprey pies were regarded as a special luxury. The cost of such delicacies was very great. In 1814 the sheriff of Gloucester provided forty-four for the royal table at a cost of £12 5s. 8d., a sum nearly equivalent to £100 at the present day. Those taken from the Severn were especially noted, and it became an annual custom for the city of Gloucester to send a lamprey pie to the king. There is a record of such complimentary presents being sent to Cromwell and to Lenthall, the speaker of the long parliament. Owing to the municipal corporation act Gloucester's annual custom ceased in 1836, but in 1893 the mayor revived it and sent a pie to Queen Victoria at his own expense. His successors have followed his example.—London Mail.

The Mystery of Health.

Whenever any one is released from jail or penitentiary after a long sentence we read that while he was in jail or penitentiary he had health when he entered he comes out as hearty as a brick. Yet almost without exception jails and penitentiaries are insanitary, unless places, with no facilities for precautions usually taken by those who wish to get or keep healthy. The mystery lies in two words—regularity and diet. The first is perhaps the more important. Clocklike regularity; everything done on the second and on the same second every day; a recognition of the fact that the body is a machine. Then, as a supplement to this, a simple diet—plain, not too varied—enough to eat, but not too much.—Saturday Evening Post.

Don't Coddle Rubber Plants.

Of all the freak remedies that are sometimes proposed for sick house plants those which are recommended for rubber plants are the worst. They run all the way from applying beef-steak and castor oil to the roots to coating the leaves with milk. Give your plants a properly prepared soil and sufficient light and you will find no necessity for such nostrums as these. Make it a practice to go over the plants daily with a soft cloth and remove any indication of dust, scale or insects.—Country Life in America.
